

The following information provides a guide to the costs of each application. All cases are unique and therefore it is not possible to give an absolute cost without having some information about your case. It will only be in unusual circumstances that the cost charged will be higher the range given. Please get in touch for a free 20 minute initial consultation either in person or over the phone and we will be pleased to provide an agreed fixed fee for assisting you. A minimum of 15 working days is usually required between initial consultation and any deadline for submission of your application.

| Application | Work Included | Cost |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Citizenship applications | Preparation of the application and all supporting documents. Submission to the Home Office. | Professional Fee - £600-800 Application fees vary – the most common ones are: Naturalization as an adult - £1,330 Registration as a child - £1,012 |
| Applications made under Article 8 – Right to private and family life Further leave to remain for family members, including partners and children. | Preparation of the application and all supporting documents submission to the Home Office. Booking of biometric and document appointment. | Professional Fee - £1000-1,200 £100 for each additional family member Application fee not included, currently £1,033 per person + £19.20 biometric enrolment fee Immigration Health surcharge not included, currently £624 for each year that leave will be granted for (for adults) |
| Applications for a fee waiver for eligible leave to remain applications (including Article 8 applications) | Preparation of the application and all supporting documents. Submission to the Home Office. | £400 – 600 in addition to the above fees for the leave to remain application. |
| Applications made under Article 8 – Right to private and family life Entry clearance family members, including partners and children. | Preparation of the application and all supporting documents Submission to the Entry Clearance Post. Booking of appointment for biometric enrolment and submission of documents. | Professional Fee - £1,200 - £1,400 £200 for each additional family member as part of the same application. Application fee not included, currently £1,523 per person Immigration Health surcharge not included, currently £624 for each year that leave will be granted for. Cost of courier of documents to applicant's country extra. |

| Application | Work Included | Cost |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Settlement In any Appendix FM or Part 8 route | Preparation of the application and all supporting documents. | Professional Fee - £1,000-1,200 Application fee not included – currently £2,389 + £19.20 biometric enrolment fee. |
| Refugee Settlement | Preparation of the application and all supporting documents. | Professional Fee - £400 £100 for each additional family member. |
| Application for entry clearance or leave to remain for a dependant relative. | Preparation of application and supporting documents and submission to the relevant decision maker. | Professional Fee - £1,200-1,400 £250 for additional family member included as part of the same application. |
| Immigration Appeals, against refusal to grant leave to remain or enter the UK for partners, children, dependant relatives | Preparation of all relevant witness statements, instructing experts where applicable. Preparation of appellant's bundle including objective evidence and case-law. Representation in the Tribunal. | Appeal £1,500 if prepared application. £2,000 for appeal only Tribunal fee for submitting appeal - £140.00 per person. Note – Any disbursements, including interpreters, translation costs and expert reports, that are required are not included – Costs will be agreed before any expenses incurred. |
| Refugee Family Reunion Only available to those recognised as refugees in the UK | Preparation of on-line application and submission of supporting evidence to the relevant Entry clearance post. | Professional Fee - £500 £150 for each additional family member as part of the same application . |
| Applications under the EU Settlement Scheme | Preparation of the application and all supporting documents. Submission to the Home Office. | Professional Fee - £250-500 Please note, the deadline for EU nationals who were resident in the UK on or before 31/12/2020 to apply under the scheme is 30/06/2021. Please contact us for further information if you are non-EU national and believe you are eligible to apply under the scheme. |

| Application | Work Included | Cost |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Asylum claims and related appeals Note – Legal Aid is available for legal representation for the majority of people who are claiming asylum. Unaccompanied asylum-seeking children (UASC), will always be entitled to legal aid for representation in their claim and in the vast majority of appeals. | Preparation of detailed statement, supporting documents, relevant objective information and legal representations. Appeal – preparation of all relevant witness statements, instructing experts where applicable. Preparation of appellant’s bundle including objective evidence and case-law. Preparation of Appeal Skeleton Argument. Representation in the Tribunal. | Asylum Claim - £800 Appeal £1,500 if prepared claim. £2,000 for appeal only Tribunal fee for submitting appeal - £140.00 per person. Note – Any disbursements, including interpreters, translation costs and expert reports, are required are not included – Costs will be agreed before any expenses incurred. |
| Advice to victims of human trafficking Legal Aid is available for representation for the majority of people who are victims of trafficking. | | |
| Challenges to deportation orders and revocation of refugee status (appointments may be available for those currently in prison) | | Costs available on consultation. Due to the varied and complex nature of the potential issues involved, it is not possible to give a price indication without knowledge of your situation. |

Preparation of all applications includes consideration of previous immigration history, detailed legal representations, consideration and preparation of all possible supporting documents